HDMI VS USB Cable Standards

In June 2015 LawMate switched from HDMI standard to USB standard for cables, as a result of the change new series of products with an U at the end were introduced. The PV-500EVO2 became the PV-500 EVO2U, PV-1000 Touch5 became PV-1000Touch5U, and CMD-BU20 became the CMD-BU20U.

HDMI

USB

It is very important to check the cable standard compatibility before upgrading your DVR with a new camera. There are plenty of HDMI DVR's still in use, as it is a recent change, and yours might as well be one of them. You can read more here...
